Dear Fred:

Thank you very much for replying to my invitation to be a part of the CE Book Review Service. I can certainly understand the demands that must be made on your time. Thank you for giving it your consideration.

Please keep in mind, if, from time to time, you run across a book that ought to be shared with the rest of us to jot down a few thoughts that would encourage others to read it and send them to me. I would appreciate this help.

I send my best personal regards to you and your family.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
